Disturbance Information Rainbow Avenue
Luleå University of Technology

Excavation work between E- and B-house

Starting Tuesday, week 47, Skanska will carry out excavation and excavation work between the E and B houses as outlined above.

The work is carried out because it is necessary to check at what heights culverts between the buildings are located.

The work area will be closed off. Passage around the work area will be limited to pedestrian and bicycle traffic.

The work is expected to take two days to complete.